Keep your words sweet - one day you may have to eat them.

www.tullyfish.com If it's happening - it's on the web! As we approach the summer holiday period, don't forget to read in your holiday directory, or on our website, wedding photos for the website. Anything that makes you smile will also make the "Smile" section of our website. We need it!
 Sometimes it takes a little while for the material to appear on the website, so please be patient. If it can't be quite as interesting as you'd like, please let us know. It's also the time of the year when the "Family Search" section "takes off", so please check in now and again to see if you can provide any helpful information.
 Please use the Guest Book to give your opinion or send greetings to those at home - or e-mail editor@tullyfish.com. Please check this out for lots of new greetings from all over the world.
 Thanks for all the support - so you can see from the website 300,000 have logged in since March 2008 and over half a million since we started!
 Remember: It's you that keeps the website alive!

HOLIDAY TIME!
 No holiday spot is that remote that you cannot find a Catholic Church to attend Mass on Sundays. There is no reason to neglect God or your spiritual life during your holiday. Perhaps it might be the best time in the world to take stock of your religious development and how you stand with Almighty God.
 For a list of all mass times in Ireland you can check out www.catholicireland.com.
 We wish all our parishioners a holy and happy Summer.
 We extend a warm Tullyfish welcome to all visitors to our parish this summer.
