Information on Trocaine's Pakistan Flood Appeal
The death toll in northwest Pakistan has reached almost 1500 with 2 million people homeless and 3 million people affected.

Earlier this week Trocaine launched an emergency appeal asking the Irish people for help for the victims of these floods. You may have seen this on TV and in the national newspapers and/or heard it on the radio. Additionally, we will be sending an appeal in the post to our existing supporters. If you would like to support the people affected by the floods, up to date information and an opportunity to make a donation are available by visiting www.trocaine.com or by calling 0800 012 1200. Donations can be sent by post to: Trocaine, 50 King Street, Belfast, BT1 6AD or placed on collection baskets at mass in an envelope marked 'Trocaine' and we will forward them on. Thank You.
