World Youth Day 2008

There are few places left in the world that can capture the imagination of young people and Sydney is one of those cities. It has a long tradition of welcoming the Irish. Indeed it was the Irish who are credited with helping to establish the Church in Australia when it was a prison colony on the far side of the world. Ten thousand young Irish people visit Sydney each year and many pass through the Irish patch near Bondi Beach. It is ironic that the largest regular event in the Church in World Youth Day at a time when perception dictates that young people are no longer interested in the Church. Beginning with a simple idea of Pope John Paul II meeting with the young people back in 1984, WYD has captured the imagination of many people and countries. It consists in young people going on a religious pilgrimage to modern cities and trying to search out some answers within the Church. World Youth Days are not small, millions attend them confounding many sceptics. In Manila (Philippines) brought together millions young people to the Pope Mass the largest gathering of people ever in the history of the world.
In Ireland WYD is probably the biggest youth ministry event. The pilgrims from Ireland (including over 20 from the Diocese of Cloyne) representing our Parish are aged over 18. Many of them have received regular faith formation in their diocese. Most of this will have been based on the theme for WYD, "You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you and you shall be my witness" (Acts 1:8).
The pilgrimage begins with a visit to Melbourne for a programme entitled "Days in the Discern". Between the 15-20 July, Sydney will become the new Rome welcoming pilgrims from all over the world. Young people will celebrate, learn about their faith and encounter Jesus in a very special way. They will be led by Pope Benedict XVI who has invited them to attend, but will also challenge them to witness to their faith in their home countries using the Gospel as a way forward.
World Youth Day can be watched on SKY TV Channel 76 (EVENING)

HOLIDAY TIME!

No holiday spot is that remote that you cannot find a Catholic Church to attend Mass on Sundays. There is no reason to neglect God or your spiritual life during your holiday. Perhaps it might be the best time in the world to take stock of your relationship with God.
We wish all our parishioners who are going on holidays a safe journey and an enjoyable break.
Cead Mile Fáilte!!
We extend a warm Tullylish welcome to all visitors to the parish this year.

Tullylish Churches Together

ALL WELCOME TO ATTEND.

www.tullylish.com

Since the launch of the updated website on 17th March 2008, we have had just under 32,000 visitors - averaging at 2,000 visitors per week.
So, if you have any news or photos, then tullylish.com is the place to display it.
If you think it's interesting, there is no will we.

WEDDINGS: Lots of new photos here - and remember - the wedding ceremony doesn't have to have happened in Tullylish - if one of your relatives were married elsewhere, we want to see the photos, especially if they are ex-Tullylish folk.

NEW ARRIVALS: The same goes for new arrivals as weddings - we want to see your photos.

EX-PATS: Thanks to all our ex-parishioners who keep in touch. We hear so often that "our ex-and-our" page on tullylish.com every week - WE WANT TO HEAR FROM THEM - WE WANT PHOTOS FROM THEM!!!

ANY GRATITUDE PHOTOS?
Also send your birthday greetings / thanks / good wishes through the website: colleen@tullylish.com
