Dromore Diocesan Historical Society
An outing to a group of 18th & 19th century industrial sites near the Upper Bann in the Parish of Tullylish, conducted by Mr Plunkett Campbell.
This event is an important follow-up to the splendid and well supported historical outing conducted by Plunkett Campbell in May 2008. On this year's outing, the emphasis will be on the all-embracing linen and cloth manufacturing premises that flourished along the Upper Bann for two and half centuries.
Everybody welcome to meet at Moyallen Quaker Meeting House, Stramore Road, Gilford at 6.50pm on Tuesday 11th May 2010.

Tullylish Lourdes Committee would like to thank all those who helped out and supported their recent successful table quiz.

Irish language collection
The collection taken up in the Parish on St. Patrick's Day amounted to £400. This money has been forwarded to Feis an Duin to be used in providing scholarships to the Gaelteacht. Go raibh mile math agaibh.

The "New School" will be celebrating its 25th year with a variety concert on Tuesday 15th June at 7.30pm.
Everyone is welcome, especially all those who have had any connection with the life of the school in any way.
We would welcome any suggestions regarding past pupils of the new school who can perform, and may be persuaded to take part in the concert, - who knows, we may discover the X Factor!
Please contact the school office as soon as possible.

The Traditional May Altar

Like the May devotions themselves, the custom of the May Altar stems from southern European countries. A report from Rome in 1540 speaks of our Lady's altars in May showing off in rich splendour, while the families also erected and decorated small home altars.

"All of nature, overflowing to new life in springtime, is presented to honor Mary, who is herself "crown of flowers, a lily of the valleys" (Song of Songs 2:1).

To make a traditional May altar, place a statue of Our Lady in your living room and make a little shrine. Place the statue on a pretty cloth and then decorate with flowers - bluebells, primroses, the white hawthorn and other wild flowers are
